COLD-BLOODED CRIMES

Victims Killed and Robbed on Their Own Premises-Indianapolis Cloth ing Dealer His Latest Victim.

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 23.—Con-vinced that the young man who yesterday brutally murdered and robbed Joseph Schlansky, a clothing merchant in a hotel here, is the same person who has committed similar crimes in several eastern and middle western cities, the local police department to night asked officers in every large city east of the Mississippi river to watch for the slayer. They believe the murderer is Joseph Ellis, about 21 years old of Richmond, Va.

Murder Coolly Planned. Investigation of the murder of Schall ansky showed it had been coolly plan ned and the escape so cunningly car rled out as to throw off suspicion

After murdering the merchant the man discarded a collar spotted with blood, walked to a nearby store where he purchased another and then returning to the lobby of the hotel wherein his victim lay dead, remained for an lour or more. Late in the afternoon the slayer returned to his room and then going to the Union depot secured his suit case from the check room and is believed to have caught an eastbound train.

Other Crimes of Like Nature. The police allege that they have gathered evidence showing that Ellis who also is known as Brokaw and Robert Duncan, committed simila crimes in Louisville last week and lef there Saturday for Indianapolis. Pre vious to the Louisville rabberies the man is supposed to have attacked clothing merchants in Cleveland, Tolede, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh. In each town where the man oper ated his scheme was the same. would register at a hotel under an assumed name, call on either one of the smaller clothing merchants or second hand dealer and explaining that he had some samples he must get get out of his possession at once, ask man's room the procedure was nearly always the same. The victim either was struck down or forced at the point of a revolver, to submit to being bound and gagged. Then his valuables were stolen and the robber, leaving the merchant to be discovered by hotel employes, departed.

Identified by Photographs. The man did not attempt to use any disguises and always walked from the merchant's store to his hotel where n most cases, he passed through the lobby ,chatting to his intended victim That the murderer of Schlansky is Joseph Ellis, the police say they feel certain. He was identified at Louisville by photographs sent from his home and also from photographs sent out by the Pittsburgh police who wanted the man under the name of Brokaw for an attack on a merchant Indianapolis Police Were Warned. At the time that Schlansky was murdered four squads of detectives were seeking Ellis here. A telegram from the Louisville police department had been received earlier in the day asking the Indianapolis police to arrest Ellis. The squad made the investigation throughout the afternoon Schlansky was killed the clerks did not remember a guest answering Ellis description.
